It was a pleasure to receive your letter of 7 April, confirming the good news received earlier through our [redacted] representative that you and [redacted] will be visiting Washington this summer. The dates you mention, 2 August to 11 August, are indeed convenient, and we shall be happy to welcome you.

STAT

In anticipation of your visit we have planned several talks on subjects of mutual concern. I hope you will find these discussions interesting, and I know that my own people look forward to them as most helpful in advancing the aims of our two organizations.

Please do not hesitate to call on us if we can assist in any arrangements which may contribute to the interest or comfort of your stay here.

With warmest personal regards,

Sincerely,

02611
